

JUNE 19, 2008 PROCLAIMED CADENCE DAY BY THE CITY OF SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA

WHEREAS: June 1, 2008 marks the 20th anniversary of Cadence Design Systems founding in 1988 upon the merger of San Jose companies ECAD and SDA Systems and

WHEREAS: Cadence today employs over 5000 worldwide, has nearly 2,000 employees at the San José, California headquarters with revenues of $1.6 billion in 2007 and is the leading electronic design automation company in the world; and

WHEREAS: Cadence is a dedicated global corporate citizen, supporting many community organizations around the world and in San José, and has raised over $11 million dollars for local charities with its hallmark fundraising activity Stars&Strikes and its support of the Silicon Valley Leadership Group, Joint Venture Silicon Valley, and AeA; and

WHEREAS: Over the past 20 years, Cadence Design Systems has played a pivotal role in the electronics revolution that has transformed the world. Cadence continues as an industry leader and innovator in areas such as low power design technology for the electronics industry, providing the critical path to green design for the next-generation of chips and systems.

NOW, THEREFORE I, Chuck Reed, Mayor of the City of San José, along with my colleagues on the San José City Council, on this 17th day of June, 2008, do hereby congratulate and commend in recognition of this significant 20th anniversary milestone, and proclaim June 19th, 2008, Cadence Day in San José.

Cadence Design Systems

A team of Cadence employees joined Mike Fister at San Jose City Hall for a proclamation naming Thursday, June 19, Cadence Day